

Orientation 2022 June 22 – 24, 2022

School of Human Resource Management successfully conducted the orientation for the batch of 2022-24 from June 22 – June 24, 2022. It started with an introductory session with Dr. Andrew Dutta, the Dean, School of Human Resource Management and other faculty members of the school.

Subsequent days of the orientation engaged students in enriching discussions with industry stalwarts like Mr. Richard Lobo, Executive Vice President at Infosys Ltd, Dr. Jayaprakash Russell Ravan, MD (Psych), CMC Vellore, Associate Prof. at PBMH and KIIMS and Dr. Pradeep Kumar Sahu, General Manager, SAIL. The program was coordinated by Dr. Subhra Pattnaik, Assistant Professor, School of HRM.

Apart from industry interactions, the program also included fun-filled icebreaking games and activities by Dr. Subhra Pattnaik and Dr. Kalpana Sahoo that helped the new students know each other and bond amongst themselves.

Experiential learning of principles of management was delivered using the 'learn through fun' concept by Dr. Mousumi Padhi, Associate Dean, School of Human Resource Management and senior professor, Dr. Tania Saritova Rath. Time management lessons were delivered through an exciting "treasure-hunt" by senior professors Prof. Saveeta Mohanty and Dr. Suchitra Pal. Sessions on case learning by Dr. LK Jena and case simulations by veteran profs like Dr. Amar KJR Nayak generated rich insights for the students and exposed them to the case learning methodology.

Students also went through a psychometric assessment that took them on a journey inside and helped them introspect better. This session was conducted by Prof. Aarti Sangwan, Department of Psychology School of Liberal Arts, XIM University. The students were also given an introduction to placement activities of the school by Prof. Saveeta Mohanty, Associate Dean, Career Advisory Services and Dr. Mousumi Padhi, Associate Dean, School of HRM.

